

Proof validity answers a cryptographic question. Statement validity binds the proof to the claim an application consumes.